PADI Open Water + Advanced Diver Combo Courses

2 Training options to choose, efficient training schedule, save holidays time with Elearning from home, more diving time, learn better, private or small join-in classes for you and friends!

Option 1 (5 days, private class, ratio 2:1) Price: 29,800 THB per person

Some people find option 2, the 4 consecutive diving days tiring, so option 1 is ideal with an extra day to slow down or rest. Another reason is there are students also needing additional time to perform underwater skills competently. So additional practice time will be very beneficial.

Option 2 (4 days, join-in class, ratio 2:1) Price: 27,800 THB per person

This is designed for divers with very limited stay while visiting Phuket, and would like to make the most out of their dive training. It is also a good option for divers in great shape and very comfortable in handling underwater skills, thus can complete all requirements timely without need additional practice.
